Society

THE Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will go to Carlisle, Pa., tomorrow, to remain until Saturday. The Vice President will deliver an address.

They will take their dinner on Christmas night with Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, who will have only a small family party, and Christmas eve will light a Christmas tree in their apartment at the New Willard for their small ward, Morrison Marshall. For this little ceremony great informality will obtain, with just the friends and those interested in the baby as callers.

Mrs. Marshall will occupy a box at the Knickerbocker to see the films presented under the auspices of the medical branch of the Army emergency committee this afternoon, and with her will be Mrs. Philander C. Knox, Mrs. Alice Fomere, Mrs. James A. Reed, Mrs. Henry F. Ashurst and Mrs. C. C. McChord.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Joseph Daniels returned to Washington this morning on board the Mayflower, coming from Annapolis. Mrs. Daniels has spent some time in New York, and stopped at Annapolis on her return.

Senator and Mrs. Medill McCormick entertained at dinner last night for the chairman of the state republican committee of Illinois, Col. Frank Smith, and Mrs. Smith of Chicago. Other guests included Senator and Mrs. Hiram W. Johnson, Senator and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg, Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, the minister of Belgium, Countess Gizecka, Mrs. Arthur Willert and Mr. Elmer Schlegel of Chicago.

Mme. Calderon will not receive tomorrow nor the following Friday, as Miss Elena Calderon is recuperating from a severe attack of influenza. The minister and Mme. Calderon and Miss Calderon will go to New York for the Christmas holidays.

The new minister from the Netherlands and Mrs. Cremax were the guests of honor at dinner last evening of the assistant secretary of state and Mrs. William Phillips at the country place, Woodley.

The new minister from Uruguay, Senor Pedro Cosio, with Mme. Cosio and their three children, have taken an apartment at the Willard.

The charge d'affaires of Mexico and Mme. Rojo were hosts at dinner last evening entertaining at their apartment at the Somerset House. Their guests were the minister of Salvador and Mme. Zaldivar, Mr. George T. Summerlin, counselor of the American embassy to Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Penfield and Miss Maria Bonillas.

Mr. John Skelton Williams, controller of currency, and Mrs. Williams will entertain a large and distinguished company at dinner Monday night in the red suite at the New Willard, in honor of Mr. McAdoo, who has just retired as Secretary of the Treasury, and Mrs. McAdoo.

Miss Gordon's Debut.

Mrs. George Barnett, wife of Gen. Barnett, commandant of the Marine Corps, will present her debutante daughter, Miss Lella Gordon, at a large tea at their quarters at the marine barracks on Friday, January 3. In the evening Gen. and Mrs. Barnett will give a ball in honor of the debutantes and the younger set.

Mrs. George Fuller of Los Angeles presented her debutante daughter, Miss Virginia Fuller, at a tea this afternoon at their residence on 18th street. Receiving with Mrs. Fuller and her daughter was the latter's aunt, Mrs. Edwin S. Fuller of St. Louis. Assisting at the tea table were Miss Elsie Bennett of Los Angeles, Mrs. Fuller's house guest; Miss Helen Claxton, Miss Elsiebeth Claxton, Miss Mary Burkholder and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

Miss Fuller wore a charming frock of white chiffon trimmed with pink rosebuds, and her mother a handsome gown of black and white, with jet Mrs. Edwin S. Fuller wore gray chiffon beaded in white.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Hitt will entertain a dinner party on Friday, January 3, at the Country Club, in honor of Miss Jane Story, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Story.

Senator-elect and Mrs. Augustus O. Stanley of Louisville, Ky., arrived at Washington, last evening, and are stopping at the Willard until after the Christmas holidays.

Maj. Carl D. Peters, ordnance department, United States Army, entertained guests at dinner last evening at the New Willard.

Mrs. William Alexander Hill will entertain a dinner party this evening in honor of her niece, Miss Courtney Letts, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Letts, at the Club de Vingt.

Mr. Edward Hamlin Everett will have as guests for Christmas week Miss Anna H. Everett and Miss Wing of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Becker, who were for a time the guests of Mr. Edward Hamlin Everett, have gone to their apartment at 211 Wyoming avenue for the rest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Baker have sent out cards for a dance at Grasslands Tuesday evening, December 24, for their granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Baker Kemp.

Cabinet Women as Guests.

Society folk in large numbers will fill the Knickerbocker Theater at Columbia road and 18th street, to see the films presented for the benefit of the medical branch of the Army emergency committee.

Mrs. Newton D. Baker, wife of the Secretary of War, will be with Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Merrill Ireland, who will also entertain Gen. and Mrs. Braisted, Mrs. Charles Mayo and Mrs. Liggett.
